

Need an insurance expert to help round out your legal team?

Task Force, Inc., a trusted name in insurance staffing since 1989, introduces our Legal Claims Examiners Program specifically for the legal environment. Our insurance claims experts bring a specialized body of knowledge, as well as unique perspectives and insights, to claims handling and the settlement process.

How can a Task Force Legal Claims Examiner help your law practice?

By providing a level of expertise outside of the formal legal environment. Fulfilling your need for an industry-specific expert on an occasional basis is what makes us unique. Our specialty areas include, but are not limited to:

- Initial case review, assessment and analysis focusing on the “insurance company perspective”.
- Analysis of claims process and procedures which includes determining claims handling correlation to case disposition and monetary exposure and value.
- Evaluation of bad faith exposures-
Was the investigative process appropriate to the action?
Were criteria met to avoid a bad faith ruling?
- Perform a detailed review of documentation and investigative procedures.
- Case valuation assessment- comparative evaluation of settlement offers
- Follow-up investigation / trial preparation.

Why a Task Force Legal Claim Examiner?

Task Force's Legal Claim Examiners are highly experienced property and casualty claims professionals with a minimum of 10 years experience. They have achieved senior level designation as Claims Vice- President, Claims Manager or Senior Level Examiner. Many have been recognized as experts in their specific areas with backgrounds in insurance and specifically claims handling experience within the litigation environment. This includes but is not limited to: Bad Faith, Personal Injury Protection (P.I.P), General Liability, Bodily Injury/ Multi-Injury accident, Catastrophic accident, Product Liability, Professional and Medical Malpractice and Workers Compensation.

Task Force candidates go through a rigorous screening and interview process we call Perfect Match™. The primary components are: test examinations of insurance claims knowledge, one-on-one interview focusing on areas of expertise, reference and background checks, and psychological and personality assessment. This kind of due diligence from Task Force insures that you will have access to highly capable Legal Claims Examiners who will make a substantial contribution to your firm.

Our Legal Claims Examiners help round out any legal team. Let our Legal Claims Examiners focus on the insurance industry (their specialty) and allow the counsel to focus exclusively on areas that require legal expertise.
